DEFENDANT OVERTURE SERVICES, INC.'S
FIRST SET OF INTERROGATORIES TO PLAINTIFF ROBERT NOVAK D/B/A PETS WAREHOUSE AND PETSWAREHOUSE.COM

Pursuant to Rules 26 and 33 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Defendant, Overture Services, Inc. ("Overture"), by and through its attorneys, hereby propounds the following Interrogatories to Plaintiff Robert Novak d/b/a Pets Warehouse and PetsWarehouse.com ("Novak"), to be answered separately and fully in writing and under oath within the time required by Rule 26 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and in accordance with the Definitions and Instructions set forth herein.

INSTRUCTIONS AND DEFINITIONS

The Instructions and Definitions set forth in Overture's First Request for Production of Documents, served concurrently herewith, shall also apply to these Interrogatories.

In addition, the following Instructions and Definitions apply herein:

A. These Interrogatories shall be deemed to seek answers as of the date hereof and shall be deemed to be continuing so that any additional information relating in any way to these Interrogatories which Novak acquires or which becomes known to Novak to and including the time of trial shall be furnished to Overture promptly after such information is acquired or becomes known.

B. The following definitions apply to these interrogatories:

(1) The term "communication" means the transmittal of information (in the form of facts, ideas, inquiries or otherwise).

(2) The term "document" is defined to be synonymous in meaning and equal in scope to the usage of this term in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 34(a). A draft of a nonidentical copy is a separate document within the meaning of this term.

(3) When referring to a person, to "identify" means to give, to the extent known, the person's full name, present or last known address, and when referring to a natural person, additionally, the present or last known place of employment. Once a person has been identified in accordance with this subparagraph, only the name of that person need to be listed in response to subsequent discovery requesting the identification of that person.

(4) When referring to documents, “to identify” means to give, to the extent known, the (i) type of document; (ii) general subject matter; (iii) date of the document; and (iv) author(s), addressee(s), and recipient(s).

(5) The term “person” is defined as any natural person or business, legal or governmental entity or association.

(6) The term “concerning” means relating to, referring to, describing, evidencing or constituting.

(7) The conjunctive shall include the disjunctive, and the disjunctive shall include the conjunctive.

(8) The singular shall include the plural, and the plural shall include the singular.

(9) The term “Novak” means Plaintiff Robert Novak d/b/a Pets Warehouse and PetsWarehouse.com and any related companies within the meaning of Section 1127 of the Lanham Act.

(10) The term “Novak Marks” refers to any trademarks or service marks which Novak believes are being infringed, diluted, misappropriated or unfairly competed against as a result of Overture’s activities alleged in the Complaint.

(11) The “Complaint” refers to the Complaint filed by Novak on September 24, 2002, under the caption Robert Novak v. Overture Services, Inc. et al., Civil Action No. CV 02 5164.

(12) The term “Novak’s Web Site” refers to all web sites operated by Novak or on behalf of Novak that use the Novak Marks, sell goods or services, or provide information about Novak, Novak’s Marks or pets and pet care.
